Karen; We last communicated after I had filed the QUIET TITLE ACTION into the Oklahoma courts.

There's news. The county court, notwithstanding that state statutes expressly give it original jurisdiction, claimed by order to lack "a procedural posture" sufficient to address the issues before it, and withheld judgment. Orders are not appealable. (Seems I made myself clear, intending nothing less than that governments stop stealing private property).

It has been a procedural drudge to get it there, but got a petition to prohibit the court below from refusing to exercise jurisdiction in front of the Oklahoma Court of Criminal Appeals (separated from civil by the OK const.)

On May 22nd past, that court transferred the matter to the Supreme Court of Oklahoma, and stated in the transfer order that it believed its jurisdiction depended upon a conviction in a lower court. (my case is a private prosecution for identity theft by the State using its own courts).

Nonetheless, the Crim Appls court stated in the transfer order, that if the Supreme Court disagreed with their understanding of the jurisdictional thing, it would decide the issues if called upon to do so. (an ounce of caution at work here?)

So; the whole thing with all exhibits is now in the hands of the adults in the Oklahoma Courts? The Principle question distilled;

is identity theft, a compensable felony under state statutes, still a felony when the State does it
?????

God go with you Karen. I heard your broadcast about the Global Debt Facility holding all the gold. Rod Class re-aired it on his talkshoe channel. I infer you hold some formal connection to it?

Like others so situated, my life is more dreadful than need be, a self-inflicted condition, with me hoping to escape the thievery. At any cost. You can't possibly understand how much your support for my efforts have lightened that burden.

Thank you!

Jerry
